OVERVIEW

Situated at an altitude of 12,500 ft, this majestic cold desert valley is a heavenly gateway for those seeking solitude in the bliss of nature. Spiti literally means 'Middle land' as it is located between India and mystic Tibet. Spiti is well known for its Buddhist culture, rugged villages, cold desert beauty and is home to several monasteries like the Key Monastery, Dhankar Monastery, Kungri Monastery and Tabo Monastery. Spiti attracts many travelers, including streams of Indian motorcyclists, as a kind of miniLadakh without tourist crowds, which is fair enough, since its pristine nature (high-altitude desert)and culture (Tibetan Buddhist) are still intact.
